Emily - Re Dr. Loeb - we would agree to limit to time she was retained, but not back to May 31, 2016. We don't intend to reissue a subpoena to NYU but will agree that you can notify Dr. Loeb of the change in the subpoena that was issued - that we do not seek info after the date that Lilly hired her. We also do not believe that a change in the response date is necessary under these circumstances. With respect to Inventiv, we believe the subpoena was served on 5/11. Please let me know if you have any questions. Thanks

Thanks, Scott. We appreciate your willingness to withdraw the Sanofi subpoena.

For Loeb, to make this as clean as possible, would you be willing to push the date back to May 31, 2016, which is when counsel for Lilly first entered discussions with her about serving as an expert? Also, I'm not sure if you've spoken with counsel for NYU yet, but we do continue to think that it makes sense for you to reissue the subpoena to them or separately notify them that there has been a change to the subpoena unless you've otherwise been in contact. I'd suggest an extension of the response date to accompany that change since it's taken some time for us to get through these discussions. Would you consider June 15?

With respect to InVentiv, now Syneos Health, my understanding is that they have not received service of the subpoena (nor have we received a copy of your proof of service). Have you served them? I'd like to understand when their response date is so that if we need to move separately we can.

Best,

Emily

Emily - Please be advised that we are willing to withdraw the subpoena issued to Sanofi based on our conversations. With respect to the subpoena to Loeb, we are willing to limit it to the time frame before Lilly hired her as a consultant on June 10, 2016. Please confirm this date or advise us if the date is different. With respect to the subpoena issued to Inventive, we believe that no changes to the subpoena are necessary. Please do not hesitate to contact us with any questions or concerns. Thank you

Just wanted to follow up on our prior call. Are you all willing to revise your third-party subpoena requests as per our discussion and reissue these? Thanks very much.

Best,
